KARAT[®] RELEASES NEW WIDE-OPENING DOME LIDS Large Opening Allows Room for Toppings, Straws, or Spoons

Chino, CA, October 21, 2013 – The large wide-opening dome lid will be one of Karat's newest products to be released this autumn. Responding to a high demand, Karat will be one of the few U.S. manufacturers to supply wide-opening dome lids, which are ideal for parfaits, ice cream floats, slushes, frozen yogurt with toppings, and more.

Made from polyethylene terephthalate (PET) plastic, the new dome lids measure 98 mm, are compatible with Karat 12-24 oz. PET plastic cups, and feature an opening large enough for straws, spoons, and spoon-straws. Measuring at 55.5 mm (2 3/16") wide, the opening also allows the user to fill to the top without spilling over.

In addition, Karat offers custom printing services for paper cups, plastic cups, cup jacket sleeves, and napkins. By attending to the smallest details, Karat preserves the integrity of customer's designs and offers a turnaround time of 8-12 weeks.
